OGDEN HIGH SCHOOL WINS TRACK MEET

TOM MILLER, STAR PERFORMER,
EARNING 13 OF TOTAL POINTS

OGDEN HIGH SPORT
Points
Ogden high school 33 1-3
East high school 15
Springville high school 10
B. Y. U. high school 10
Murdock academy 9
Ogden High school regained some of its old time prestige yesterday on Cummings field when it won the annual state track and field meet. The winning did not come as an entire surprise as those who knew the stuff in Ogden's team anticipated a good showing but when it was seen that the old orange and black would take the meet joy rose to a frenzy.

Miller Star.
Tom Miller was the star performer of the event, taking an individual total of 13 points. With him on the honor roll for Ogden were Harry Bagley, George O'Keefe, Lee Richards, Clark McIntyre, Robert Griffin, Lorenzo De Julien and Harold Hutton, all of whom scored points which went into the total of 33 1-3 which won the meet for Ogden.

The meet was not featured by any spectacular lowering of records. The only event in which the state record was jeopardized was the mile run which Brown of the B. Y. U. ran in 4:46 4-5, one second slower than the state record.

Miller won first in the 220 yard dash and shot put and second in the discus throw. O'Keefe of Ogden won a total of 8 points individually, tying with Dorius of Salt Lake, for second place in individual honors.

Big Crowd Attends.
The meet was run off under ideal weather conditions and a very large crowd attended. After the contests the athletes were entertained at a university dance and reception.

In the 100-yard dash, Dorius and Lee, both of the East high, took the elimination heats. In the final, O'Keefe of Ogden pushed Dorius hard, and the finish was quite close. Lee being only a few inches in the rear. Miller, after sparing himself in the preliminary heat, came through with some speedy work and took the 220-yard dash with ease.

O'Keefe showed wonderful speed in the quarter, and after taking a lead, he could not be headed, although Lee gave him a hard fight for honors.

Brown Heady Runner.
Brown used good head work in both the mile and half. Although Freebairn had for most of the distance in the mile and Hales shot into the lead in the half, at just the right time Brown started ahead. Had he been pressed harder he would probably have made better time, as he finished in easy fashion.

The relay, with eight teams entered, did not develop into a race until the last 220 yards. Ogden got a good lead at the start, with Miller leading off. They maintained this until the third relay, when Lee came forth with a spurt and evened up matters. However, on the last 220 Dorius was not equal to O'Keefe's speed.

The meet was run in fast time, and the officials are to be congratulated. The meet this year was more interesting than usual.

CAMP DICK, Dallas, Tex., May 4.—The stage was set here today for what is declared, will be one of the greatest track and field meets the south-west has ever witnessed. The more than 200 entrants, all aviator cadets at this camp, include several collegiate athletes stars. Then thousand tickets had been sold early today, the proceeds from which will go fifty-fifty to the Red Cross and the Camp Dick athletic fund.

The competitors will represent their ground schools. The following schools of military aeronautics are to be represented:
Universities of California, Texas, Illinois, Ohio State, Cornell, Princeton and the Boston and the Georgia schools of Technology.

The program started at 2 o'clock and concluded with an intermission when a "flock" of fliers from Benbrook field, Fort Worth, were scheduled to invade Camp Dick. These "invaders" are to be piloted by the French ace, Lieutenant Le Maître.

DEMPSEY WINS
OVER MISKE

Utah Wonder Shades Billy
Miske So Close That There
Is No Dispute.

ST. PAUL, Minn., May 3.—Jack Dempsey, Utah, wonder of the ring, shaded Billy Miske in ten rounds of battling here tonight, shaded him so that there could be no dispute at the close of the battle. But Dempsey didn't land that much heralded knockout, a punch which he possesses, but which he couldn't put over successfully or effectively. Several times he did land on vital spots, staggering the local lad, and at one time it looked as though the fatal ten awaited Miske, but the latter held on and weathered the round. The bell came as a welcome sound in the seventh round.

Dempsey tried his famous shift, tried it often, but it didn't work as it has worked in former fights. Miske had a defense, a style and speed that baffled the human submarine. In speed and cleverness Dempsey had the shade and his punching was far in excess of his opponent's.

It might be said, too, the Utah boy was trained a bit too fine for the fight. That was shown in his weight. He tipped the beam at 137. Betting was 7 to 10 at the ringside, with Dempsey the favorite.

BERLIN, via London, May 3.—"In southwestern Finland we have overwhelmingly defeated the enemy during a five days' battle near Lakhti and Tavasthus, capturing 20,000 prisoners," says the German official communication issued this evening.

"From the other theatres" the communication adds, "there is nothing new to report."

VERNON TIGERS
LOSE TO BEES

Close Game With Bill Orr and
Earl Sheely as Heroes of Day for Bees.

At Salt Lake—Vernon 1, Salt Lake 2.
At Los Angeles—Oakland 2, Los Angeles 6.
At San Francisco—Sacramento 3, San Francisco 4.

SALT LAKE, May 4.—Fielding that by rights should go down in history in a chapter all to itself, saved the Salt Lake club from disaster yesterday and turned the tide of battle so as to produce a 2 to 1 victory for the Bees.

Throughout the game both sides put up a thrilling defense. The honors go to Salt Lake and are to be well scattered among the players. Red letters, however, should be used in noting the wonderful performances of Billy Orr and Earl Sheely in the very first inning, performances which undoubtedly prevented the Tigers from scoring three runs and winning the game then and there.

With the bases full on walks and two out, Frank Hosp rammed one through the northern reaches of the shortstop's territory. With a rush and a dive Orr stopped the ball. There was no chance to regain his balance for a throw, but he threw anyway. The throw was wide of first, but Sheely, stretching himself at least two yards, made a one-hand stab, held the ball and retired Hosp. Since all the runners had started with the crack of the bat, the entire trio would undoubtedly have scored had either Orr or Sheely missed fire.

Is Pitchers' Battle.
The Vernon club fielded in sensational fashion, too. This is well attested by the fact that Salt Lake was held to one earned run. The Bees' margin of victory was due to the sole error the Tigers made.

Jean Dubuc started the game with a woeful lack of control, but he soon got over that, and as if to show his appreciation of the great support accorded him by his mates, he pitched magnificent ball, too, for Weiser Dell was pitching that kind and plenty of it.

Honors were about as even as it is possible to square them between two clubs. Each side recorded eight hits, each side recorded one extra base hit and each side recorded one error. The decision lay with Salt Lake, because Vernon's error was costly while Salt Lake's was not.

From beginning to end the game was a thrilling battle. People forgot to breathe, and the scores present who are just getting over the gripe, even forgot to cough their heads off—and that's paying tribute to the tense-ness of the game.

The victory gives Salt Lake a margin for the league leadership of a game and a half. In order to hold the advantage over the present series and to start their road trip in first place, the Bees have to win only one of the two remaining games. The Tigers must win both if they would leave Salt Lake in first place, the position they occupied when they came to town Tuesday.
